

VICTOR E. HUSKIE

123 First Street
DeKalb, IL 60115
victorhuskie@niu.edu
(815) 555-5555

OBJECTIVE Position as a school counselor

EDUCATION

M.S.Ed., Counseling, School Counseling Specialization, Northern Illinois University, DeKalb, IL, December 20XX
B.A., Sociology and Political Science, cum laude, Northern Illinois University, DeKalb, IL, May 20XX

LICENSURE

Illinois Professional Educator License; Endorsement: School Counselor (PK-Age 21)
Illinois Licensed Professional Counselor, #123456789

COUNSELING EXPERIENCE

Counselor Intern, Schaumburg High School, Schaumburg, IL, May 20XX – Dec. 20XX

- Counseled individual students on academic, personal/social and career development
- Facilitated small groups: social skills for students with family issues; students with Asperger’s syndrome
- Teamed with assistant principal, social worker and school psychologist to ensure well-being of students
- Presented information on orientation, study skills, and time management through the Freshman Yearly Initiative
- Offered college and career information to juniors and seniors in large classroom format
- Worked with registrar during summer to enroll and schedule transfer students; advised students on school schedules
- Supervised student council program and yearly election

Practicum, Westfield Community School, Algonquin, IL, Jan. – May 20XX

- Co-facilitated eighth grade anger management group of seven diverse students and an African American focus group

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Substitute Teacher, District 214, Arlington Heights, IL, Jan. 20XX – Present

Career Planning Instructor, Northern Illinois University, DeKalb, IL, Aug. – Dec. 20XX

- Taught three-credit undergraduate career development class of 20 ethnically diverse students
- Led class activities: Self-Directed Search interest inventory, values clarification, resume writing, interviewing, and job search process
- Employed classroom management strategies based on logical consequences and consensus
- Contributed to development and revision of course curriculum during weekly instructors’ meetings
- Evaluated student progress and comprehension through formative and summative assessments

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

American School Counseling Association, Illinois School Counseling Association, Illinois Counseling Association
Vice President, Northern Illinois University Counseling Association, Aug. 20XX – May 20XX

ADDITIONAL EXPERIENCE

Customer Service Sales Representative, Xerox Commercial Solutions, Bolingbrook, IL, May 20XX – Oct. 20XX

- Increased level of satisfaction by 7% over an 10-month period
- Reduced high-dollar, low-usage parts to save $125,000 in one month
- Independently managed facility in supervisor’s absence; assisted in interviewing, hiring and training of 12 new employees